

MUST HAVE LIST

YOU MUST KNOW WHAT YOUR PRIORITIES ARE to fight for them in the divorce settlement. If you are not sure what they are, use this worksheet to decide what your priorities are. It is important to do this now before you enter the deciding negotiations. Share this with your attorney. Remember that asking for everything is not going to help you or your attorney. Priorities need to be things you cannot live without.

Property

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

Finances

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

Children (Support)

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

Contact a Certified Divorce Financial Analyst® (CDFA™) today to find out the difference between separate property vs. marital property; general rules for how property is valued and divided in a divorce; retirement issues; guidelines for spousal and child support; how the house is split; tax settlement issues and resolution, and how to decide on the best settlement option.